

PDG

An imprint of Publishers Design Group, Inc.

From Terror To Freedom

A Warning About America's Affair With Islam

by Mano Bakh, Jacqueline Le Beau, with Foreword by Wafa Sultan

With a Foreword by Dr. Wafa Sultan, this memoir describes the tortuous escape of a prominent member of the Iranian Navy during the takeover of Iran by Islamic radicals. Admiral Bakh miraculously escaped certain death. He graphically delineates the totalitarian rise of the Islamic Republic, the slaughter of innocents, and the flight of Iran's best and brightest, while demonstrating his immense love for the people of Iran, its history, and its culture. He warns against the dangers Islam poses to American freedoms and offers solutions to the Western world's problem with Iran and the Middle East's control of oil. A hunted man, he writes under an assumed name. A fascinating account that keeps the reader engaged.

ISBN 13: 978-1929170-357 (Paper)

Category: Memoir / Radical Islam / Iran

Price: US$19.95

Format: Paper, perfect binding

Trim: 6 x 9

Page count: 248

Illus: 75 B&W photos and maps

Carton quantity: 40

Author/s resides: Southern California

Pub date: 05/15/2011

Ship date: 04/01/2011

Comparable titles:

- A God Who Hates: The Courageous Woman Who Inflamed the Muslim World (Cl) $24.95, by Wafa Sultan, St. Martin's Griffin (April '11) ISBN: 978-0312538361
- Because They Hate: A Survivor of Islamic Terror Warns America (Pb) $14.95, by Brigitte Gabriel, St. Martin's Griffin (Jan '08) ISBN: 978-0312358389
- Now They Call Me Infidel: Why I Renounced Jihad for America (Pb) $19.95, by Nonie Darwish, Sentinel Trade (Nov '07) ISBN: 1595230440
- The Truth About Muhammad (Pb) $16.95, by Robert Spencer. Regnery Publishing (July '07) ISBN: 978-1596985285
- The Blood of Lambs: A Former Terrorist's Memoir of Death and Redemption (Cl) $19.95, by Kamal Saleem. Howard Books (April '09) ISBN: 1416577807
- Son of Hamas: A Gripping Account of Terror, Betrayal, Political Intrigue, and Unthinkable Choices (Pb) $15.95, by Mosab Hassan Yousef. Salt River (Feb '11) ISBN: 978-1414333083

Sales materials to support the book:

- Finished books and sample covers
- Color sales flyers and press release

Marketing:

- Co-op available
- Veritas Communications national publicity campaign for book launch
- Author scheduled to write feature articles in Islam related political and consumer magazines and newspapers
- Author is Director of Concerned American Citizens, an educational non-profit that has over 15,000 web site visitors monthly
- Sending publicity kit to top 300 subject-specific, experts, historians, media outlets
- Sending review copies with publicity materials to top 125 subject-specific media
- Author scheduled for seven-city speaking tour in Summer/Fall of 2011
- Promotional mailing to 4,000 libraries
- Three News-wire releases for launch
- Mailings to 3,200 subject-specific reviewers
- BEA & ALA, '11, Combined Book Exhibit
- Advertising subject-specific sites and in National Examiner and New English Review

Sales handles:

- Written by an ex-Muslim (Iran)
- A first-hand account of the 1979 Iranian revolution by a prominent military officer
- Author escaped imminent execution
- Endorsed by Robert Spencer, Tawfik Hamid, Amil Imani, The National Examiner, the New English Review, and contains a Foreword by Dr. Wafa Sultan