MARKETING BLUB

Why did General Norman Schwarzkopf request that the information in this amazing book be forwarded to him in Kuwait in 1990, and read to American troops? Why did radio host Paul Harvey call the author at 5 am, pleading to know the answer to this week's Baffler? Raved about by leaders in government, business, and sports, such as Colin Powell, Alan Greenspan, and Dan Reeves, the inspirational quotations, anecdotes, trivia, and insights in Ponders, Proverbs, and Principles could be America's best new addiction.
